SALLY DENNIS JOINS FARRIS

Clients will benefit from business succession and estate planning advice

VANCOUVER – It is with great pleasure that the Partners of Farris, Vaughan, Wills & Murphy LLP (Farris) announce that Sally Dennis is joining the partnership to take on a leadership role in our wealth preservation, business succession and estate planning practice.

Farris' Chair, Keith Mitchell, Q.C., said today, "We are extremely pleased to welcome Sally to Farris. Her expertise includes advising high net worth individuals and family business owners on all aspects of inter-generational wealth transfer, succession and estate planning, including wills and trusts, philanthropy and corporate reorganizations."

Alan Hamilton, Q.C., the firm's Managing Partner, added, "Sally's extensive experience will enhance our already impressive practice that includes a team led by Sandy Sheinin C.A. Clients in all our offices will benefit from comprehensive advice on wealth preservation, business succession and estate planning."

Having practised as a business lawyer for a number of years at a national law firm and as General Counsel to a major public company, Sally brings extensive business experience and knowledge to her practice. On joining Farris, she said, "I am delighted and honoured to be joining Farris. The opportunity to work with its team of highly respected professionals in expanding the scope and range of services available to clients is very exciting."

Sally Dennis can be contacted by phone (604) 661-9327 or by email: sdennis@farris.com
